

Operating Systems and Web Browsers

Name: _____ Hour: _____

Date: _____

Instructions: Read each section carefully and answer the questions.

Part 1: Operating Systems and Devices

An Operating System (OS) is the software that manages all of the hardware and software resources on a computer. It's the core program that allows you to interact with your device. Different devices often use different operating systems.

Question 1: Match the following Operating System names to the device types they are most commonly associated with.

Operating System

Device Type

A. Android

1. Apple computers (desktop and laptop)

B. iOS

2. Smartphones and tablets (non-Apple)

C. macOS

3. Smartwatches

D. Windows

4. Apple smartphones and tablets

E. watchOS

5. Personal computers (desktop and laptop)

Matches:

- Android → _____
 - iOS → _____
 - macOS → _____
 - Windows → _____
 - watchOS → _____
-

Part 2: Web Browser Functions

M. It's what you use to navigate the internet. Modern web browsers have several common buttons and features to help you browse more efficiently.

Question 2: Label the following common browser buttons with their function from the list below.

- A. Reload/Refresh Page
- B. Back
- C. Forward
- D. Address Bar
- E. Home

Question 3: What is the primary purpose of the "Address Bar"?

Question 4: When would you use the "Back" button?

Part 3: Categorization

Question 5: Categorize the following examples as either an Operating System (OS) or a Web Browser (WB). Write "OS" or "WB" next to each item.

- Google Chrome: _____
 - Microsoft Edge: _____
 - Ubuntu: _____
 - Linux: _____
 - Mozilla Firefox: _____
 - Safari: _____
 - Windows: _____
 - macOS: _____
 - Android: _____
 - Opera: _____
-